

Fabrice Baron
CEO, Paris

Fabrice Baron joined Gavin Anderson & Company in 1992. From 1992 to 1996, he worked at the Paris office then at the Honk-Kong office before joining the Paris office again in 2000. He was appointed Paris office's CEO in July 2002.

Fabrice has worked on various take over bids, privatizations and numerous IPOs.

At Gavin Anderson Hong-Kong, he counselled several international financial institutions in their media relations programmes as well as IPOs, M&As, financial communications programmes for listed companies and crisis communications programs.

Fabrice started his career as a credit analyst at Credit Commercial de France's London Branch before joining First Financial, a London-based financial public relations consultancy.

He holds a Masters Degree in Management and a Post-Graduate Degree in Corporate Finance, both from University Paris-Dauphine.